

TODD HENRY

Todd Henry came to Lassiter High School in October from Yellowstone National Park. Born and raised in Vail, Colorado, Todd grew up playing soccer and hockey. He went on to play both internationally. He is married to an Atlanta native and has a four-year-old son, Aidan.

Todd has coached at the varsity and junior varsity levels in Georgia for five years. As the Boys Varsity Head Coach at Chapel Hill High School in Douglasville, Todd compiled a 46-12-2 record, qualifying for the State Playoffs in 2002, 2003 and 2004. During the 2004 campaign, Coach Henry's team made it to the AAAA State Semifinals, ending the season with a #4 ranking.

Coach Henry is thrilled to be a part of the Lassiter Boys' Soccer coaching staff.
